

Please don't mess around with the "NJ DO NOT CALL PROGRAM". It has almost completely eliminated unwanted phone calls from telemarketers. I don't need an unsolicited phone call from them to get information on a product or service. If I want the product/service I will go and get the information, I don't need to be bothered by sales people who are rude, arrogant and extremely irritating.